Welcome to Bosscher International: we offer a complete service of tailor-made gentlemen accessories, very rapidly delivered, for a good price!

ABOUT US

Who are we?

The Bosscher International team aims for the best quality and price for every customer, whilst working passionately! Through our ambitions and experience, we learned to work customer-centered, where we focus on finding the best solution for every situation and offer a 100% service to provide the best service to our customer!

We have carefully selected and approached the production factories that we work with, to set the required expectations that enables us to guarantee our customers the best quality. The knowledge and experience that we gained within the industry comes from visiting and spending time in these factories (over a period of more than 15 years in the meantime), which we passionately convey to our colleagues and customers!

Our story starts nearly two decades ago, when a colleague from a similar company inspired me to start working in the industry of gentlemen's accessories. I was convinced rather quickly and started the business with selling custom-made cufflinks within the Netherlands.

The cufflinks became very popular almost immediately, also amongst several Dutch celebrities (e.g. the Dutch Prime-minister and TV-presenter who is famous in the Netherlands for always being well-dressed). As there are more gentlemen's accessories that are crucial to a men's outfit, I started to expand the company with PINS, SOCKS, BEANIES & SCARVES.

Especially our socks are very much in favor, in the meantime we sell more socks than cufflinks! Next to selling our products in the Netherlands, we also work for companies outside the Netherlands: our southern neighbours (University of Gent), recently made an order of 5000 custom-made socks.

As we do not want our customers to worry about any step in the process, we offer full-service from A to Z. So, we arrange development of the design(s), delivery of samples, the production, and the delivery of the order.

PRINT SOCKS

360 degrees printed Socks

Producing a pair of 360 Degrees Printed socks is conceivable through the perfect design pattern that is applied around the cotton or polyester socks. 360 degrees printing enables better permeability of colours, creating excellent results: even when stretching the socks, they remain beautiful!

The socks can be produced in any colour and colour pattern, without restraint in the number of colours used, making the 360 Degrees Printed socks the ideal means to communicate a corporate identity. Any design is possible: even a picture or painting can be printed on the socks. Minimum order is 240 pairs per design.

Sublimation printed Socks

Printing a pair of Sublimation socks is possible through Sublimation printing. Through this method the entire sock is printed 'all-over'. These socks are made from polyester and spandex.

The Full Colour socks are deliverable in a variety of colours and colour patterns, making the course of colours well visible. Sublimation socks fully printed in a design and company house style ensure a cheerful effect that guarantees happiness!

Sublimation socks are the perfect gift for Christmas, Holiday, Soccer, Valentine's Day, Festivities, Fairs, Easter, Birthdays, and for any other festive occasion!

Production and shipping

When the graphic design of your order is confirmed, we produce a sample for approval. Normally it takes around 1 week. After approval of the sample we normally ship in 2 weeks the production, by air - truck - sea.
